Greetings from the President

It's the beginning of the end of warm summer days and the beginning transition to a temperate fall season. And the start of the new fiscal year.

Summer was a rejuvenating time to recover from the stresses of the ever changing world around us. This was when we traveled to visit family, friends, or just to see other interesting sites in the USA or around the world. Welcome home!

The VCCAA continues to provide educational programs to enhance our proud ancient Chinese heritage of culture and tradition that dates back to 2200 BC. The new Board brings forth fresh energy and ideas for an ambitious year in the planning.

We ask your support and active participation in all the events of fiscal year 2010-2011:

Mid-Autumn Festival	Easter Egg Hunt
Halloween Party	Combined Memorial Day Picnic and
Christmas Party	Board Awards & Installation
Chinese New Year

The association is grateful to the honorable Superior Court Judge Kee Choo Ling who installed the Board Officers on Sat., June 26, 2010. We appreciate the continued support that Judge Ling has provided over the years.

Execution of all our programs requires funds. We ask for financial support of our members and sponsor businesses. Many of you have been faithful long-time members and I'm sure you all want to participate in the association activities, receive the quarterly newsletter, and be included in the annual directory. Renew your membership by Sept. 18. Send your renewal application along with a check ($25) payable to the VCCAA, P.O. Box 806, Camarillo, CA 93011-0806.

In a service organization of volunteers, we need and appreciate your help and participation as no contribution is too small. We welcome everyone to pitch in to instill and propagate our proud culture and heritage.

Lloyd Ho
President 2010-2011

Memorial Day Picnic

by Lloyd Ho

Our annual Memorial Day Picnic was held on a bright, sunny, day with clear blue skies on Monday, May 31, at Pleasant Valley Park in Camarillo. Master BBQ chef Leslie Jue and his crew cooked up a mighty tasty and hardy lunch. The barbeque beef tri-tip and chicken, with all the trimmings were outstanding!

After lunch, President Lloyd Ho emceed the program. Select students of the Chinese Language School under the strong leadership of Lee-May Little, Principal, performed memorable recitations.

Dr. Angela Soo Hoo graciously presented the William Soo Hoo Memorial Scholarship ($750) to Erik Jue. Tony Chen proudly presented the Tony Chen Scholarship ($750) to Lauryl Nakagawa. Dr. Andy Little presented the VCCAA Scholarship ($500) to Jingwei Zhou and the Clarissa Dong Scholarship ($500) to Alexander Nguyen. And Lee-May Little and Irene Sy presented the VCCAA Youth Group Service Scholarship ($500) to Hung Su.

Incoming officers and directors for fiscal year 2010-2011 were announced and presented to the membership.

In between these events were the exciting rapidly executed drawings for raffle prizes given to those that presented the winning tickets. Prizes included soup bowl sets, tea, dried mushrooms, and, yes, chop sticks!

I wish to thank all of you who have made this picnic and this organization a success.

The VCCAA is a voluntary organization. Its lifeblood depends on your helping hands. So please freely support the association with your time and participation.

Awards and Installation Luncheon

by Vivian Goo

The awards and installation luncheon was held on Saturday, June 26, 2010 at 12:30 PM at the City Buffet in Oxnard. Approximately 45 members attended the luncheon. This luncheon recognized our out-going and incoming officers for the next fiscal year as well as our sponsors, program chairs and life members.

Lloyd Ho presented a gift to each of the out-going officers and Board members. This gift was especially noteworthy as it was a picture of each officer and Board Member and their spouse as well as a cup that had their pictures on it with the VCCAA logo. The pictures were taken personally by our president, Lloyd, our great photographer!

The Club thanked him for his dedicated service to our Club and presented a President's Plaque to him.

The new officers and Board were installed by Judge Kee Choo Ling.

After the installation luncheon, the new officers and Board convened for the first Board meeting for the new year to discuss the planning of the events for the new fiscal year.

Upcoming Events

Mid-Autumn Festival

When: Saturday, Sept. 25, 2010, 6:00 PM

The Chinese Moon Festival is held on the 15th day of the 8th lunar month. On this day the moon is farthest from the earth and at its brightest. It's also known as the Mid-Autumn Festival. Chinese culture is deeply imbedded in traditional festivals. Just like Christmas and Thanksgiving in the West, the Moon Festival is one of the most important traditional events for the Chinese.

Cakes, in the shape of the moon, are the most common feature of the Moon Festival. The moon cakes are made of pastry filled with bean paste or lotus seeds, and often contain duck egg yolks to represent the moon.

The festival is full of legendary stories. One Legend says that Chang E flew to the moon where she has lived ever since. You may see her dancing on the moon during the Moon

Festival. Another legend is that the moon cakes commemorate an uprising against the Mongols in the 14th century. According to the story, a message calling the Chinese to revolt was hidden inside the moon cakes, which were then distributed to the people.

The Moon Festival is an occasion for family reunions. When the full moon rises, families get together to watch the full moon, eat moon cakes, and sing moon poems. With the full moon, the legend, the family and the poems, you can't help thinking that this is really a perfect world. That is why the Chinese are so fond of the Moon Festival. May the Moon Festival bring you happiness.

For the potluck dinner, members are reminded to bring dishes that will serve their family plus at least ten people. The association will provide drinks, rice, and other food items.

Halloween Party

When: Saturday, Oct. 23, 2010, 5:30 PM
Where: Camarillo Hts Elementary School
35 Catalina Dr., Camarillo
Contact: Edna Tanita, (805) 482-3356

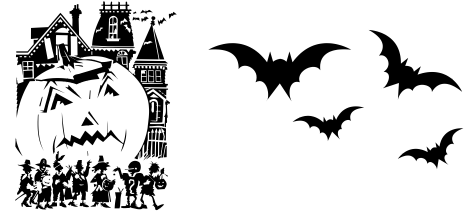

Halloween was first celebrated about 1500 years ago. It was a festival to celebrate that year's harvest and the start of winter. It was believed that on October 31st the souls of the dead come back to earth.

People believed that many of the souls that return to earth are bad spirits and that these bad spirits will play tricks on and bring bad luck to the people who were alive. To keep these evil spirits away, people began making "jack o lanterns." Jack o lanterns were lanterns made from pumpkins. It was believed that if you put a scary jack o lantern in front of your house, it would scare away the bad spirits.

It is believed that if the children wear scary costumes and visit their neighbors' houses, then evil spirits will be scared and they won't come to their houses. As thanks to the children, the neighbors are supposed to give candy to the children. If their neighbors don't give them any candy, the children will play a trick on them.

Sooo, light food and drink will be served at 5:30 PM, followed by games and costume contests. Mark your calendar for this fun-filled event.

Chinese Language School

by Irene Sy, Principal

I hope everyone enjoyed this summer as much as four of our Chinese school students, Serena Chow, Luke Barnett, Sarah and John Eldridge who spent two weeks in the Peoples Republic of China. They visited the Forbidden City and Summer Palace, climbed the Great Wall of China, spent 10 days in the No.1 Jilin High School learning the Chinese language and culture as well as experiencing the traditional Chinese daily life by spending time with their Chinese host families. The trip was sponsored by the Chinese Hanban Educational Department and the Confucius Institute to promote Chinese language and culture awareness in American schools and communities. This program may continue for another year next summer, students who are interested in this Chinese Summer Camp program can contact me for further information.

We have also successfully provided local students the StarTalk Chinese Immersion Program held at the Rio Mesa High School for the third year. Students completed the Chinese immersion program can receive high school foreign language credit as well. This is a great opportunity to spend some time in the summer learning the Chinese language and culture for free and earn high school credit as well. I encourage all 8th to 12th grade students to take advantage of this program in the future.

On July 10th and 11th, the Chinese Language School had a booth in the annual Camarillo Fiesta & Street Fair. We sold many Chinese crafts, fans and silk items. Thanks to those who helped out especially Ms. Alice Ginn, Mrs. Lee-May Little and Mr. Xiaoming Chen. We had many people showed their interests in our language program and signed up for information.

Chinese School will start on Friday September 10th this year at the same location tentatively (2222 Ventura Blvd. at Elm St., Camarillo) at 7:00 PM. Registration forms will be mailed out next week after site confirmation. Please join us for a new school year. I need your support to help build a better and bigger school and provide our children a better learning environment and opportunity to discover and maintain their cultural heritage.

Many thanks to Mrs. Lee-May Little who has contributed so much to the Chinese school so our children can have a place to learn our heritage language and culture. Kudos to all her work and good luck to her retirement. I will continue to perpetuate her good effort and provide my best to help keep the Chinese Language School a place to nurture our children on their cultural heritage.

A Glimpse on the History of China

The Opium War, 1839-42

During the eighteenth century, the market in Europe and America for tea, a new drink in the West, expanded greatly. Additionally, there was a continuing demand for Chinese silk and porcelain. But China, still in its pre-industrial stage, wanted little that the West had to offer, causing the Westerners, mostly British, to incur an unfavorable balance of trade. To remedy the situation, the foreigners developed a third-party trade, exchanging their merchandise in India and Southeast Asia for raw materials and semi-processed goods, which found a ready market in Guangzhou.

By the early nineteenth century, raw cotton and opium from India had become the staple British imports into China, in spite of the fact that opium was prohibited entry by imperial decree. The opium traffic was made possible through the connivance of profit-seeking merchants and a corrupt bureaucracy.

In 1839 the Qing government, after a decade of unsuccessful anti-opium campaigns, adopted drastic prohibitory laws against the opium trade. The emperor dispatched a commissioner, Lin Zexu (1785-1850), to Guangzhou to suppress illicit opium traffic. Lin seized illegal stocks of opium owned by Chinese dealers and then detained the entire foreign community and confiscated and destroyed some 20,000 chests of illicit British opium. The British retaliated with a punitive expedition, thus initiating the first Anglo-Chinese war, better known as the Opium War (1839-42).

Unprepared for war and grossly underestimating the capabilities of the enemy, the Chinese were disastrously defeated, and their image of their own imperial power was tarnished beyond repair.

The Treaty of Nanjing (1842), signed on board a British warship by two Manchu imperial commissioners and the British plenipotentiary, was the first of a series of agreements with the Western trading nations later called by the Chinese the "unequal treaties." Under the Treaty of Nanjing, China ceded the island of Hong Kong to the British; abolished the licensed monopoly system of trade; opened five ports to British residence and foreign trade; limited the tariff on trade to five percent ad valorem; granted British nationals extraterritoriality (exemption from Chinese laws); and paid a large indemnity. In addition, Britain was to have most-favored-nation treatment, that is, it would receive whatever trading concessions the Chinese granted other powers then or later.

The Treaty of Nanjing set the scope and character of an unequal relationship for the ensuing century of what the Chinese would call "national humiliations." The treaty was followed by other incursions, wars, and treaties that granted new concessions and added new privileges for the foreigners.
